Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows: the first species or the embodiment of Figures 1 through 4; the second species or the embodiment of Figures 5 through 8; the third species or the embodiment of Figures 9 and 10; the fourth species or the embodiment of Figure 11; the fifth species or the embodiment of Figure 12; and, the sixth species or the embodiment of Figures 13-14.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

2. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above, with the following claims being generic: claims 20 and 34.

3. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons, for example: the first species or the embodiment of Figures 1 through 4 characterized by the cells being connected in parallel between the inlet and outlet positions; the second species or the embodiment of Figures 5 through 8 characterized by the cells being connected in series between the inlet and outlet positions; the third species or the embodiment of Figures 9 and 10 is characterized by a one-piece flow distributor adapted for manufacturing by die casting or injection molding; the fourth species or the embodiment of Figure 11 is characterized by two top plates; the fifth species or the embodiment of Figure 12 is characterized by the circular shape of the cooling unit; and, the sixth species or the embodiment of Figures 13 and 14 is characterized by a pump unit.

Art Unit: 3744

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
